A Budget of Latest Local Happenings Which Will be of Interest to the Readers of the Star. Holiday Arrivals and Departures. Has Been a Busy Week in the Town

J. H. Fraser, the well known Edgerton merchant, spent Sunday in the town.

At the Anglican Church Sunday evening—Special Subject on Some Aspects of the English Church.

A very good way to start the New year, and in fact the best we know of, is to drop into the STAR office and pay up your subscription.

Don't forget to see and hear the world famed Alabama Warblers, New Year's Eve and New Year's Night. Prices only 25 and 50 cents.

In the next issue of THE STAR we will publish the programme of the Union Sunday School for the coming year, giving the list of subjects which will be taken up during the year.

Owing to the fact that it is not expected that there will be sufficient ice here for the opening of the rink on New Year's Day, the hockey team will go to Viking tomorrow to play the fast team at that town. A number of supporters will accompany the team.

The box social given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church in the Auditorium last Thursday was a financial success. There were a large number of very dainty boxes sold during the evening and fairly good prices were realized. In the early part of the evening a short programme was very well received.

The Massey Harris Implement Co., will erect a large warehouse here in the immediate future. Plans have been received for a two story building, with office, measuring 30 x 60 feet. Tenders are being called for the erection of the same. J. Henning, of Calgary, was here and made preliminary arrangements for the construction of the building.

The first annual "At home" given by the local order of Oddfellows will be held in the Auditorium this evening. Previous to the reception of the guests the installation of the newly elected officers will take place. The fine large Auditorium has been beautifully decorated for the occasion and no doubt this will be the most successful affair of the kind ever given in the town, as it is the most pretentious.

On Friday evening last the school house at Greenshields was filled to overflowing on the occasion of the school Christmas tree and concert. A splendid programme was given by the children and their friends including choruses by the children and the Stouffer choir. The programme was under the direction of D. A. McDougall and Miss McLean and great credit is due to them for the fine entertainment. At the close of the programme refreshments were served.

First League Hockey Game Tuesday Next

Eastern Division of the Eastern Alberta Hockey League Will be Opened Next Week When Old Time Rivals Meet

The Eastern division of the Eastern Alberta Hockey League will be officially opened on Tuesday next, January 4th, when the Edgerton and Wainwright hockey teams meet in the first league fixture on the local ice. The boys from the east are bringing a strong team with them and a hot game may be looked forward to. They have been practicing hard and will make a game struggle to

J. H. Dawson is in Edmonton on a business trip.

Thos. Bissan has gone to the east on a holiday trip, leaving on Monday.

Geo. Smith left on Monday's train on a holiday visit to Saginaw, Mich.

Bert McKee left yesterday on a business trip to the 'Peg. He will return next week.

J. B. Ross, the commission merchant, of Scott, is in the town on a business trip.

Mrs. Becket, of Vermilion, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKay.

The several buildings which are under construction in the town are fast nearing completion.

Roy Readman returned from his holiday visit to his home at Semans, Sask., on Tuesday last.

Theo. Smith has gone to his former home at Bismarck, Ont., where he will spend the balance of the winter.

The regular band practices will be held on Friday nights in the future, owing to the inability of some of the members to be present on the Wednesday night.

We have received a copy of the Christmas number of the Melville Canadian. It is a very attractive issue and reflects a great deal of credit on Editor Reid and his staff.

G. H. Beaudry, of the Central Store, left on Monday on a holiday trip to Montreal. He will be absent a couple of months. His brother Albert, will have charge of the store while he is away.

The McKanlass Show Company, playing the Alabama Warblers, will appear in the Auditorium Opera House, Friday, New Year's Eve, and New Year's Night. Prices 25 and 50 cents.

Our correspondent at Gilt Edge writes:—Homestead Inspector Cunningham, of Vegreville, paid an official visit to this district on the fifteenth, and stated that this was one of the finest sections he had seen in the province. There are still a few homesteads open for settlement.

F. H. Cox, the well known train agent, left on yesterday afternoon's express for Reading, England, on a three months' holiday trip. On his return he will be accompanied by his family and will make his future home in Wainwright. His hosts of friends along the line wish him a most enjoyable trip to his home.

Ratepayers should bear in mind that tomorrow is the last day on which taxes for the present year can be paid without having the ten per cent. penalty imposed.

Ribstone News

Popular Young Couple Married—
News of District

A very pretty wedding, was solemnized in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Smith, of this district, on Friday evening last, when their youngest daughter, Phoebe, was united in marriage to C. A. Waite, a well known young farmer of the Edgerton district. About sixty friends of the young people were in attendance at the wedding which was one of the most popular to be held in our district for some time. Miss Alice Levitt assisted the bride, while the groom was looked after by Wm. Smith. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous repast. Mr. and Mrs. Waite left for Wainwright to spend their honeymoon. They will take up their residence on Mr. Waite's farm on their return.

S. G. Lewis made a business trip to town early this week. The local boys have got down to practice in fine style and expect to be in this form for the game with Wainwright on January 6th. They are going to make a strong bid for the championship of the Eastern Division of the E.A.A.H.A. this year.

Word has been received from J. L. Crittendon to the effect that he will make his home in Edmonton for some time to come. He will be greatly missed from the local sporting circles.

A letter has been received from Dr. J. G. Middlemas, who left a short time ago on a holiday trip to points in British Columbia. He is at present at Seacombe, and states that he is having a splendid time. On the day on which he wrote the letter, he noticed several flocks of ducks on the lake near the hotel and says, "From this you can judge for yourself what the weather is like." Before leaving on his holidays he moved his offices from the brick block to the Auditorium block.

Everybody is looking forward to the big minstrel show in the Auditorium Opera House on Monday, New Year's Eve, and New Year's Night. This company has grand recommendations from city theatres.

Last Meeting

Of the Council

Accounts all in for Public Works—
Councillor Richardson

The last meeting of the first council of the village was held in the office of the Secretary-Treasurer on Tuesday afternoon, at which Chairman Dawson and Councillor Small were present, Councillor Richardson being absent from the city.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and other routine business transacted. The statements were all in for the cement sidewalks and the council was in a position to form a definite idea of the cost.

The councillors present criticized Coun. Richardson rather strongly for the manner in which he has carried out his duties as Chairman of Public Works, the statement being made that when the money ceased coming he lost all interest in the work. We are under the impression that Councillor Richardson will have something to say about this matter on nomination night.

Accounts were passed to the amount of $507.52. The financial statement was presented by the secretary-treasurer and he was instructed to have same published in the STAR.

A requisition was received from the fire brigade for four additional rubber coats and the Secretary of the brigade was instructed to purchase same. The council then adjourned sine die.

A Right Royal Christmas Dinner

Martin L. Forster Entertains His Friends and Guests at a Fine Spread on the Holiday—A Thoroughly Enjoyable Evening Spent by Those Present—Excellent Menu

The hotel proprietors throughout the country will be wishing their friends all a merry Christmas for 1909, and to give practical expression to that wish they are just now preparing for the biggest, finest and most costly dinner of the year. Hotelmen like to "blow" themselves on Christmas day. They seem to cast to the winds all thought of expense, and limit the length and quality of their Christmas menu only to the selection of good things procurable and to the capabilities of their chef.—Hotels and Travel.

This is very true in the case of Wainwright, as the Christmas dinner given by Martin L. Forster, of the Wainwright Hotel, was all that could be desired. Over seventy sat down to the spread in the large dining room, which was well decorated for the occasion and everyone certainly enjoyed themselves.

The dinner was served in the style which has made this hotel famous along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific and every railroad boy who could get around at all, was present.

After the dinner a short toast list was sprung on those present and some very clever after dinner speeches were made.

Following is the list of toasts and the names of the gentlemen replying:—
"His Majesty the King"
The Guests—Roy Abbott.
The Festive Season—Elnor Drake.
Song, "Pony Boy", by Bert Lambkin.

Wainwright, as it is—H. E. Cummer, toastmaster.
Wainwright, as it was—Norman Culp.
Song—C. G. Smith.
Wainwright, as it will be—C. T. Lally.
The G. T. P. and the Boys—C. Walliker.
The Ladies—H. E. Laird.
Our Hosts—H. E. Cummer, Paddy Woods and Bert Lambkin.

When the guests had risen and drank the last toast there was call after call for Mr. and Mrs. Forster, and the popular host was finally prevailed upon to make a short reply. He thanked those present for the many kind words said during the evening and thought it was a very good sign when such a feeling existed between a hotel keeper and his guests as was shown during the evening. On the occasion of the Christmas dinner it had always been his aim, during the many years he had been in the hotel business, to set a dinner before his guests which consisted of the best viands procurable and he was more than pleased to see the manner in which his efforts had been rewarded this year. He also hoped the pleasant relations at present existing between himself and guests would continue during the coming year.

The gathering closed by singing the national anthem. Now as to the dinner, all we can say is that it was perfect. Well cooked, well served—and heartily enjoyed. The menu follows:

Nominations for the Council on Monday

Have You Picked Your Favorites for the Next Council. A Number of the Leading Ratepayers Will Likely be Candidates

Posters have been issued by H. V. Fieldhouse, returning officer, announcing that he will be prepared to receive nominations for the village council on Monday evening between the hours of seven and ten o'clock. This will be the last opportunity the ratepayers will have to pick out suitable candidates for the council for the coming year and every ratepayer must make it a point to be present on that evening.

As far as we have been able to find out, the following ratepayers will be candidates for election to the council:—Chairman Dawson, Councillor Richardson, W. W. Carter, P. D. Laird, H. C. King and E. C. Logan. The members of the present council will no doubt be in attendance and tell of the work of the past year.

Canada's Progress On Forestry Work

What is Being Done by the Government in Preserving the Forests from Fires and Waste—Superintendent Forestry suggests Larger Appropriation

The extent of the forest resources of the United States is spoken of in the highest terms of praise and with good reason, but it may be pointed out that although the extent of Canada is not less than that of the United States, the forest service of the latter has an appropriation of $4,000,000 and a permanent staff of over 2,000, while the Canadian forest service has an appropriation of $100,000 and a permanent staff of about forty. If the Canadian people wish a service equally efficient with that of the United States, they must be prepared to deal much more generously with it than they do now.

The foregoing words form part of the introduction to the report of the Dominion Superintendent of Forestry (Mr. R. H. Campbell) which forms part of the 1908 report of the Department of the Interior lately laid before parliament. In addition to the forestry work proper, the Forestry Branch has charge of the irrigation work and the national parks.

The main divisions of the forestry work carried on are the protection of the forests from fire, work on the forest reserves and work in tree planting on the prairies.

At present the protection of the forests from fire is accomplished by means of rangers, who patrol their respective districts, discover and extinguish fires and warn travellers and residents of the danger of setting fires. While the season of 1908 was exceptionally dry and the risk from fire correspondingly great, few serious fires occurred on Dominion lands. The most serious fires were at Salmon Arm, Manson Creek and White Lake in British Columbia, and in the valley of the Spray river in Alberta. By the B. C. fire squatters on timber berths were chiefly responsible and in one case carelessness on the part of a lumber company was a partial cause. For the Spray valley fire the carelessness on the part of tourists is responsible. For the B. C. fires 300,000 feet, board measure, of timber was destroyed and 10,000,000 feet damaged. The Spray valley fire burned about 8,000,000 feet of lumber.

The total number of rangers employed during the season of 1908 was 82, as compared with 47 during the season of 1907. A special patrol was maintained along the line of the G. T. P. and no serious fire occurred there. Additional rangers were employed north of the Pass, in the country north of Prince Albert and on the Peace and Great Slave Rivers. Despite this extension, however, there is the most pressing need of protecting the great Northern Forest Belt, a district reaching from Hudson Bay to the Rocky Mountains (a distance of 1000 miles) and from 300 to 600 miles wide; there is also great need of the same along the many lines of railway projected into the northern country.

The need of a survey of the Northern Forest Belt is also dwelt upon. All this area is less forested and the forest is of great value for consumption. While along the "lines" of travel the country has been explored, large areas are entirely unknown and more definite knowledge of these is imperative in order to secure its proper administration and management. Mr. Campbell calculates that an exploration of this forest belt, similar to the one made in 1900 by the Ontario government of the northern part of that province, could be made for $200,000, an annual expenditure for ten years of $20,000.

Timber surveys on the reserves were continued during 1908 and the survey of about 1,250,000 acres out of the 10,000,000 acres on the reserves completed. The results were discouraging, inasmuch as the reserves are found to be in poor condition as a result of fire and careless cutting. Plans of administration for the reserves, based on the results of these surveys, are now being prepared.

A full list of the forest reserves, with their names, dates of setting aside and other particulars is given in the report of the Inspector of Forest Reserves, Mr. A. Knechtel. The survey of the Riding Mountain reserve has been completed and the results have been published as a separate bulletin (Bulletin No. 8, "The Riding Mountain" forest reserves). A reconnaissance survey of "The Pines" forest reserve near Prince Albert, Sask., was also made in the summer of 1908 the result of which is published in an appendix to the report (Appendix No. 2, report of H. R. MacMillan, Asst. Inspector of forest reserves) maps of the above reserves have also been published. Inspection was also made of a tract of some 200 square miles lying in the north of the Saskatchewan river, near Prince Albert, with a view to setting it aside as a forest reserve. A considerable extension has also been recommended to the Cypress Hills reserve, the value of which as a source of hay for the ranchers in the vicinity has been abundantly shown. An investigation has been made of the forests of the Crow's Nest district in southern Alberta, the result of which has been published as Bulletin No. 5 ("Forest conditions in the Crow's Nest Valley, Alberta," by H. R. MacMillan, Asst. Inspector of Forest Reserves). Regulations for the management of camping sites in the forest reserves and also for mining claims within the reserves have been prepared and are printed at the conclusion of the report.

In the spring of 1909, over 2,500,000 trees were distributed from the Forest Nursery Station at Indian Head, Sask., to 2,010 applicants. The new applicants for trees to be delivered to in the spring of 1910 number 2,235.

A new feature will be shortly introduced into the tree distribution by the distribution of coniferous trees, such as pine and spruce; this is hoped

COMMENT

Watch Wainwright Grow.

This is a resolution that every citizen of the town should make on New Year's: "During this year I will do everything in my power to make Wainwright grow."

We will soon write it "1910."

Only one more week until elections. Watch the glad hundreds get busy in the meantime.

Eggs are now selling at forty cents a dozen. Oh well, we never were fond of them.

Press dispatches state that four men were frozen to death in Colorado. There is surely some satisfaction in living in a temperate climate like Alberta.

May the coming year be filled with as many good things for the citizens of Wainwright as the past twelve months have been.

Everybody turn out to the opening match of the Eastern Alberta Hockey League on Tuesday next. We have the material here for a good hockey team and the boys should get every support from the citizens.

His many friends will be pleased to learn that J. H. Dawson has decided to be a candidate for the new council. He has worked hard for the village during the past year and no doubt will be re-elected at the coming election.

Only a few hours more and 1909 will be a thing of the past.

Settlers, accompanied by their families, have been arriving in Wainwright steadily for the past few weeks. Their early appearance is only a hint of the numbers to follow later on.

these the tamarack or native larch. All applications for trees are now handled directly short description of each park, and the revision of the park regulations noted. The fence around the Buffalo Park has been satisfactorily completed;

it is seventy four miles long,
nine feet in height and composed of 14 strands of wire. The St. Lawrence Park reservation consisting of eleven islands and a small peninsula on the St.

Lawrence between Brockville and Gananoque (formerly the property of the Mississaugas Indians) is also administered by this department.

Fire notices have been printed in Cree and Chipewyan and a facsimile of one of these is appended to the report, together with a translation.

Copies of the report, as well as those of the bulletins referred to above may be obtained free by addressing R. H. Campbell, Superintendent of Forestry, Ottawa.

A TALE OF A SPOTTED DOG

A small Basset Hound, once called in to save his owner's boots. He looked it over with close attention, and finally asked: "Mamma, where did this thing come from?" "Anxiously sought it, I think," he answered when he heard the family dog's cry. "Well, there, mamma, all that I have got to say is that you are decidedly a tale of a spotted dog!" To the owner of any dog who will write a letter to me, I will send you a small Basset Hound, once called in to save his owner's boots. He

HARDWARE

It's not what you pay for an article, it's what the article pays you in return that determines its value. Judged by this standard the Treasure line of Stoves, Ranges and Heaters are in a class by themselves. We have handled this line for years, result—scores of satisfied customers. It will pay you to examine our line before purchasing. We also have a first class stock of new and up-to-date, Granite ware, Tinware and Shelf Goods. Paroid roofing, White and Tar Paper. Comfort felt.
